Friends first recommended the MANDARIN ORIENTAL. I love the modern decor and skyline views from the Oriental Suite (from $6,000). Rooms start at $445, 222 Sansome St.; 415-276-9888; mandarinoriental.com.

I've seen wonderful exhibitions on fashion and design at the ASIAN ART MUSEUM. Browse the store for books. At 200 Larkin St.; asianart.org.

The simple, elegant food at QUINCE, like stuffed roaster Dover sole, puts a creative spin on California cuisine. At 470 Pacific Ave.; 415-775-8500; quincerestaurant.com.

SITE SPECIFIC

SAN FRANCISCO

Exploring the Bay Area city, designer HAN FENG finds herself at the intersection of Far East and West Coast.

GALLERY JAPON-ESQUE sells Japanese collectibles, like stone sculptures. It's the most amazing shop. At 824 Montgomery St.; japonesquegallery.com.

Everyone in town goes to TARTINE BAKERY & CAFE. Don't wait in line for the bread—preorder it three days in advance instead. At 600 Guerrero St.; 415-487-2600; tartinebakery.com.

WINE COUNTRY UPDATE This summer in Napa Valley, Odette Estate (5098 Silverado Trail; odetteestate.com)—a new Stags Leap winery from the team behind CADE and PlumpJack—returns with its Secret Cinema drive-in-movie nights, which it pioneered last spring. Tickets include dinner and a tasting flight. A food truck will be on-site. (Gott's Food Truck was there last season.) Meanwhile, in Sonoma's Russian River Valley, the Farmhouse Inn (1871 River Rd.; 707-887-3300; farmhouseinn.com) will debut a $2 million spa. Book the Catherine's Favorite massage (from $220).
