

Road Trippin'

Three Wine Country Adventures

The slightly more adventurous first cousin to the staycation, the road trip lets you unwind while enjoying the best of travel: exploring unknown territory. What better destination than Wine Country, where you can go from wineries to restaurants to hotels, with the freedom to pull off for a hike, bike ride, or picnic—or sit still and simply take in the scenery?

Drive One: Napa

TAKING THE HIGH ROAD THROUGH NAPA.

Drive up the Silverado Trail toward St. Helena and then up Howell Mountain Road to Cade Winery.
