YOUR LUNCH PROFILE

Where should you go to eat? Well, it depends on your type.

THE POLITICO

Balboa Cafe, 3199 Fillmore St., 415-921-3944

If your idea of stargazing is spotting such politicians as Nancy, Gavin and Willie, this institution, originally opened in 1913, is the place. Bloody Marys and martinis flow freely, and regulars order the burger on baguette with fries. While evenings here are infamous for the Marina singles scene, lunchtime is more upstanding.
